

Masabilities

Carnival Without Limits

Thank you for being a part of our annual

Masabilities: Carnival Without Limits rooted in our mission that "Everybody deserves to play ah' MAS". This year we had an incredible time wearing beautiful costume pieces, dancing to the sweet sounds of Soca and Calypso music.

Photo of a Raffle Prize winner wearing a Lakers basketball cap, black and blue snoop dog top and blue shorts in a motorized Wheelchair beside Marty Lampkin wearing a lime green dress and silver beaded carnival head piece. Both are smiling with their thumbs up.

Our Mission

Because, everyone deserve to play ah MAS

To create an inclusive Carnival MAS to address the needs of the Disabled African, Caribbean, Black Community by addressing the ableism currently present in the Toronto Caribbean Carnival Parade. Masabilities was founded by the vision of Marty Lampkin.

Our Sponsors

A big thank you to Monique Pitt of Gyalivant for another successful collaboration!

- Taibu Community Health Centre
- Black Mental Health Canada (Alice W)
- SweatwithLeesh
- Lux Carnival (Sharon N)
- Caribella MAS (Carnival Nationz)
- Calabash MAS (Michelle, Revellers)
- Moko Jumbie MAS CAMP
- George Brown College (SSW Program)
- Builducate (Johanna N)
- Ganvas Events (Faith)
- Chef Hassan Kitchen
- Island Spice Cake Pops

Photo of five people including; SweetwithLeesh in a matching blue workout set, Sharon from Lux carnival in a White blazer, white top and black pants, Marty Lampkin wearing a lime green dress with a Guyana and St. Vincent flag, a multi-coloured moko jumbie and Michael of Moko Jumbie Mas wearing a blue hat and blue glasses. Each person is smiling with their hands in the air.

Photo of Luca and Adia, two GBC students wearing white chef hats, smiling with black chef aprons that say "black futures month" in front of their white chocolate and coconut cake pop desserts

Did You Know?

Marty Lampkin wanted to ensure Masabilities: Carnival without Limits was 100% Afro-Caribbean from the sponsors to the Vendors used for the event. A special vendor included two upcoming George Brown College culinary arts students, who created our delicious Island Spice cake pop desserts.

Big up to Luca Assad & Adia Morgan!

Watch AllYuh: Photo Recap

Photo recap of all attendees from Masabilities smiling for a picture

Feedback Form

You will receive a feedback form in your email.

We would greatly appreciate your feedback to improve on the Masabilities: Carnival Without Limits experience

@masabilities.withoutlimits

We extend a special thank you to our partners, sponsors, organizers, and volunteers for their support and commitment to Masabilities: Carnival Without Limits. Your contributions have helped us create an event that embraces inclusivity, diversity, and community and has been instrumental in ensuring that this event is a resounding success. Together, we are making a difference in the lives disabled/neurodiverse individuals in our community.

GYALLIVANT

